Once seedlings are 5-10cm tall, start to pull out the smaller and weaker seedlings. Leave a space of 10cm between each plant.

Beetroot is ready to harvest from June, when you can pull up beetroot that are golf ball size. You can leave some to mature for longer and pull up when cricket ball size.

TOP TIPS

Keep the soil around the crop moist and remember to weed regularly.